

■ Dealer Showroom Giveaway

Thank you for your interest in being an Innotech Windows + Doors dealer!

As part of our ongoing effort to partner with dealers who value both quality manufacturing and service excellence, Innotech has exciting opportunities for premium dealers of high-quality windows and doors.

In support of the 2010 IBS, Innotech is offering a free showroom giveaway valued at $10,000 USD. If you are looking for a reliable manufacturer with years of experience that offers a comprehensive line of windows and doors ideal for any North American climate, we would like to hear from you.

The following information will be used by Innotech to select the dealer who best fits our dealer profile. The selected dealer will then be offered a showroom package that includes: windows and doors, product training, and marketing support. All dealers will be contacted by phone or email. The selected dealer will then be notified by March 1, 2010.

Start off the decade with Innotech!
